

From: Jay Turner
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/23/02 1:34pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

Would like to express my opposition to the proposed Microsoft settlement.
The proposed settlement falls far short of punishing Microsoft in any way.
The final settlement needs to go much further in the punitive stage.
Microsoft must be brought back to the business procedures that the rest of the software companies in the world are working with, and the proposed settlement does nothing more than serve as a slap on the wrist.

Thanks,
jkt

--

-----*

Jay Turner, QA Manager jkt@redhat.com Red Hat, Inc.

No amount of experimentation can ever prove me right;
a single experiment can prove me wrong. -- Albert Einstein